SUBJECT ACCESS REQUEST (SAR) POLICY

What must Rushmere St Andrew Parish Council do?

1. MUST: On receipt of a subject access request The Clerk must inform The Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Parish Council of its receipt
2. MUST: The Clerk (in conjuncture with the Chairman of the Parish Council) must correctly identify whether a request has been made under the Data Protection legislation
3. MUST: The Clerk, and as appropriate, Chairman or Vice-Chairman, who receives a request to locate and supply personal data relating to a SAR must make a full exhaustive search of the records to which they have access.
4. MUST: All the personal data that has been requested must be provided unless an exemption can be applied.
5. MUST: Rushmere St Andrew Parish Council must respond within one calendar month after accepting the request as valid.
6. MUST: Subject Access Requests must be undertaken free of charge to the requestor unless the legislation permits reasonable fees to be charged.
7. MUST: Councillors and managers must ensure that the staff they manage are aware of and follow this guidance.
8. MUST: Where a requestor is not satisfied with a response to a SAR, the council must manage this as a complaint.

How must Rushmere St Andrew Parish Council do it?

1. Notify the Chair or Vice Chair of the Parish Council upon receipt of a request.
2. Rushmere St Andrew Parish Council must ensure a request has been received in writing where a data subject is asking for sufficiently well-defined personal data held by the council relating to the data subject. The Clerk should clarify with the requestor what personal data they need. They must supply their address and valid evidence to prove their identity. The Parish Council accepts the following forms of identification (* These documents must be dated in the past 12 months, +These documents must be dated in the past 3 months):
 - Current UK/EEA Passport

3. Depending on the degree to which personal data is organised and structured, Rushmere St Andrew Parish Council will need to search emails (including archived emails and those that have been deleted but are still recoverable), Word documents, spreadsheets, databases, systems, removable media (for example, memory sticks, floppy disks, CDs), tape recordings, paper records in relevant filing systems etc. which your area is responsible for or owns.
 4. Rushmere Parish Council must not withhold personal data because you believe it will be misunderstood; instead, you should provide an explanation with the personal data. The Parish Council must provide the personal data in an "intelligible form", which includes giving an explanation of any codes, acronyms and complex terms. The personal data must be supplied in a permanent form except where the person agrees or where it is impossible or would involve undue effort. The Parish Council may be able to agree with the requester that they will view the personal data on screen or inspect files on our premises. The Parish Council must redact any exempt personal data from the released documents and explain why that personal data is being withheld.
 5. Make this clear on forms and on the Council website
 6. The Parish Council should do this through the use of induction, performance management and training, as well as through establishing and maintaining appropriate day to day working practices.
 7. A database is maintained allowing the council to report on the volume of requests and compliance against the statutory timescale.
 8. When responding to a complaint, the Parish Council must advise the requestor that they may complain to the Information Commissioners Office ("ICO") if they remain unhappy with the outcome.
- A. Sample letters
1. All letters must include the following information:
 - (a) the purposes of the processing;
 - (b) the categories of personal data concerned;
 - (c) the recipients or categories of recipients to whom personal data has been or will be disclosed, in particular in third countries or international organisations, including any appropriate safeguards for transfer of data, such as Binding Corporate Rules¹ or EU model clauses²;

- (d) where possible, the envisaged period for which personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- (e) the existence of the right to request rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- (f) the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office ("ICO");
- (g) if the data has not been collected from the data subject: the source of such data;
- (h) the existence of any automated decision-making, including profiling and any meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

² "EU model clauses" are clauses approved by the European Union which govern the international transfer of personal data. The clauses can be between two data controllers or a data controller and a data processor.
